

ARCHIVE UPDATE No 28

JOSEPH SOUTH(1)

Joseph South(1) 1822-1906

Mary Ann Dutton 1851-

Judith Cranefield has provided the original photograph of the photocopy that appeared in Update No 9. It was sent to her mother, Elizabeth, the youngest child of Joseph(1) and Mary Ann Dutton, by Samuel (2). The print had been made by Parker & Jenkins of Southwold and Samuel(2) wrote a description on the covering folder:

Grandfather South & Step Grandmother
 date unknown
 Taken by Wigglesmith & Brian [?]
 Christchurch
 Dunedin
 NZ

It can be assumed that the details of the photographer were taken from the original photograph sent from New Zealand to the family of Joseph(1) in the UK, perhaps to Samuel(1).

The assumption, to date, has been that there was little, if any, communication between the two branches of the families of Joseph(1) after his emigration but the history of the photograph suggests that this conclusion should be reassessed.

POTTERIES

Even more Potteries photographs.

CHILDREN OF JOSEPH SOUTH(1)

Inspection of census returns has established the existence of a further child, Isabella, of the marriage of Joseph(1) and Emma Bright. His nine children from this marriage were:

Ann b. Barley C1846;
Isabella b. Standon C1849;
Joseph(2) b. Ware 1850-1897;
Solomon b. Ware 1851;
Samuel(1) b. Cheshunt 1853-1919;
Walter* b. C1860;
Keziah* b. C1863;
Arthur* b C1865;
Moses* b. Edmonton 1867-1949.

At present, it is believed that the elder two daughters did not survive to maturity. Emma died in 1868 and the children marked with an * emigrated to New Zealand with their father and step-mother, Mary Ann Dutton, in 1874.

The nine children from the second marriage were:

Daniel b. Edmonton 1871-1871;
Florence b. Edmonton 1873-1911;
Cordelia b. Dunedin 1874-1897;
Cornelius b. Dunedin 1877;
Ernest b. Dunedin 1878-1967;
Evangeline b. Dunedin 1880;
Henry 1882-1978;
Emalene b. Dunedin 1885;
Elizabeth b. Dunedin 1889-1987.
